SUBJECT TO EPILEPSY.

after the Prosecution Submits Its Testimony the Defence Puts on Expert Witnesses to Show the condition of Mind of Accused.

crewd of friends and relatives William Meadors, who is charged with of of Maggie Driver, assembled Hustings Court yesterday to atthen court convened at 10 o'clock morning it was ascertained had been taken sick. A special ix was summoned, and the turor was secured in R. A. making up the panel. Meadors, sed rather anxious and pale, ot guilty" when arraigned.

he case was opened up Coroner agior was called to the stand. as to viewing the body of er on the night of the murery 20th. He recited the repost-mortem the next day. ed that four bullets had enpreast, had gone down into and caused death. One fired when the pistol was so be woman that her flesh was is taken from Maggie Driver's ingelsrook, who at the time of g resided on Fourteenth street, second witness called. She said Maggie Driver and Meadors on n that evening. He was dreas-niform. He asked for Maggie, him that she did not know as. He then said that he Maggie and the baby and good-by, as he was going afterwards asserted that he her and then kill himself if not kiss him. He displayed a nd placed it at his head. Wit-she told him not to shoot him-out the revolver in his pocket is house. Later she heard him at "me and Maggie will be dors was sober at the time drunk and sober, and was hat he was sober then. Wit-ified that Mendors was very Maggle when drunk. His treator when soher was excellent, frord, being called to the wit-l, stated that on the evening filing Meadors had called for ad carried on very much as he apartments of Kate Glaze-

WAS AN EYE-WITNESS. clanson said that he knew both r and the murdered girl. He the party the night of the mur met Ellis in uniform and asked ere Meadors was, and was and Maggie were in the he and Maggie were in the loon on Fifteenth and Franklent in the place and found both.
Meado's he had better go the barracks as it was hate. Meadors said he wasn't l would spend the night at his A man named Oscar joined and Meadors asked him for a e shooting the prisoner or and snapped his renaimation, the witness a friend of the prisors drunk or sober on ing his harrible work while is the unfortunate woman ared that when the shots I he ran around to the sta-give the slarm, and that back to the scene Meadors by the side of the dead girl. revolver in his mouth. He at the corner with the ho heard the shot that unded himself. When the

AD SWORN TO KILL HER. atiled that he went to to murder immediately after it is asked Meadors, while he why he had shot Maggie "I swore to-day that if she cill me good-by that I would it have done so. I loved he any one in the world." Capa described the position of the

H. Parker, the almshouse physiaccompanied the ambulance to of the tragely, testified that he with the ambulance upon the the killing. He said he had ors tell Captain Thomas why i the girl. Mendors said, con-wincess, that he had bought if the purpose of killing him-e girl, if she would not tell on the day of the woman's sald that she was better afternoon session, Wil-e United States army reis, the United States army reunder sentence to one year's not for desertion, was placed d by the defence. He said that is prisoner at the bar, having t the recruiting office on JanuHe also saw Meadors about 7 following evening. They had ee drinks together. Later on m Franklin near Mayo street, was with Meadors until dock when witness was pretty when witness was pretty examination Ellis stated that ot keep his oath when he was as a soldier, but deserted be-did not like the life of a soldier. t Meadors again in the ever, but was not with him con-When they met again they visit-ral places, and while in heard Meadors say the he would be jumpling in there they went into Kate Afterwards they had some is in Girolami's and when they on their way to the recruiting oy met Maggie Driver, and he is about a baby She said he is see the baby. He then went the Maggie, and told witness to the recruiting officer that he send the night at his mother's, was then called. She testified that the prisoner, her son, had been an inveterate clgarette smoker, and had been a subject of epilepsy. She also stated that her brother, John F. Anthony, had committed suicide, while insane, by hanging himself. Her father's brother, Miles B. Anthony, also died in a lunatic asylum, while George W. Anthony, a younger brother, had been out of his mind, had wandered away, and had never returned. Mrs. Meadors said that the accused had only had three epileptic fits to her knowledge, but that when he came home to supper on the evening of the tragedy she supper on the evening of the tragedy she did not notice that he had had a drink.

ESTIMONY OF THE MOTHER.

THE EXPERT TESTIMONY. THE ENPERT TESTIMONY.

Counsel for the defence then offered some expert testimony to show that young Meadors was out of his mind when he committed the rash act, and was not responsible for it. Dr. M. L. James was the first witness of this character. He said that he knew the connection between Miles B. Anthony and the prisoner at the har. Dr. James explained the tween Miles B. Anthony and the prisoner at the bar. Dr. James explained the manner in which the insanity of the party in question manifested itself. He said he had never seen any other member of that do anything irrational.

During the cross-examination the wit ness went into a detailed description of the Illness of Miles B. Anthony, which might not have brought on insanity. He did not know whether this species of insanity was subject to family heredity,

DR. PARKER ON EPILEPSY.

Dr. W. W. Parker, the next witness said: "I knew John F. Anthony, who committed suicide. He had a case of violent manis. I saw him one day reach up and tear a door from its hinges. The stiffening of the muscles, foaming at the mouth, and twisting of the mouth are indications of convulsions. There is such indications of convuisions. There is such a thing as epileptic insanity, which is almost always incurable. It is generally progressive. A person afflicted with epilepsy is liable to become insane, or it may lead to imbecility. Narcotics and drink will also lead to insanity. Intoxication may cause epilepsy, but sometimes it is hereditary. A person may be suffering from epilepsy for a few moments without failing to the ground.

The witness was subjected to a rigid The witness was subjected to a rigid examination as to the causes and symposoms of epilepsy and insanity by Messre. George E. Wise and H. St. George Coalter, counsel for the defence. He was then cross-examined by Commonwealth's Attorney Smith, and stated positively that John F. Anthony was insane, and not an epileptic. He did not think that the family history was to be considered in a case where one man died from insanity, while a nephew of his had epileptic fits, inasmuch as there was no consession between the two diseases. nection between the two diseases,

NO ARCHITECT SELECTED YET. Funds in Sight Not Equal to Necessities-Dr. Hatcher's Work. The Building Committee of the Grace Street Haptist church met last night, but no selection of an architect was made, The time was spent mainly in considering the financial situation, the committee being in doubt as to whether the money in sight will justify their undertaking to build such a house as the necessities of the church will require. It is possible that they will seek to add something to their treasury before their work is commenced. Hev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher spent last Sunday in Washington, and met with an exceedingly kind reception. He went in the interest of his church-building enterprise, and preached for the First Baptist church The time was spent mainly in considering nd preached for the First Baptist and preached for the First Baptist church in the morning, and the Fifth Baptist church at night. He leaves this morning for Farmville, where one of his daughters. Miss Elizabeth Herndon Hatcher, gradu-ates to-day, and will proceed on Friday to Granville, O., where he will deliver the begggalureate savmon before the Designe. reate sermon before the Denigan

THE OTEY BATTERY'S REUNION.

An All-Day Celebration at the had by all.

A large crowd was present, many A large crowd was present, many having gone out early in the merring. All kinds of games were indulged in, and at 4:30 o'clock a magnificent dinner was served in one of the rooms of the party that he was a rany for three years, and id give Maggle to Oscar for Then the 10 cents was sele and Meadors commenced. arie as a body on the 21 of July. Among the visitors present were Major lay Drewry, Mr. Wirt E. Taylor, C. E. Drewry, Mr. Wirt L. Taylor, Drewry, Mr. Wirt L. Taylor, C. Evensen, and Greer Baugh

CARS WILL CERTAINLY RUN.

No Doubt That the Traction's Line Will Be Opened Next Week.

General Charles J. Anderson, a mem! of the Committee on Street-Car Facilities for the reunion, having heard a report to for the reunion, having heard a report to the effect that the Traction Company would not be able to get their line in ope-ration as soon as had been expected, he yesterday called upon the officers of the Traction, and was assured that their road would be opened in less than a week. "We will certainly begin to run our cars Saturday or Monday," said an officer of the company to a Dispatch man last night, "and our line will be in full opera-tion next week from Chimborazo Park to Reservoir lake. We do not think there is a shadow of doubt on this point." a shadow of doubt on this point."

Visiting Troops Can Come to Virginia.

The Governor has issued the following circular, which has been gotten up in souvenir style, and handsomely engraved with the coat-of-arms of Virginia; "Commonwealth of Virginia,

"Commonwealth of Virginia, "Executive Department."
"Parmission is hereby granted to all military organizations of the State of authorized by the Governor thereof to leave said State, to enter the Commonwealth of Virginia, armed and equipped, and to remain therein from June 25 to July 15, 196, for the jurpose of particleating in the reunion of United Confederate Veterans, and the ceremonies attending the laying of the cornerstone of the monument to the memory of Jefferson Davis, at Richmond, June 20th and July ist and 2d, and visiting the battle-felils of the late war and points of interest in Virginia.

attle-fields of the late war and points interest in Virginia.

"Given under my hand and the lesser al of the Commonwealth, at the Capitol, Richmond, this twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and thusty-six, and in the one hundred and twentieth year of the Commonwealth.

"By the Governor: "CHARLES T. O'FERRALL. Joseph T. Lawless, Secretary of the Commonwealth."

State Board of Medical Examiners in Session.

The State Board of Medical Examiners held their examination of applicants for diplomas at the First Regiment Armory esterday morning.

yesterday merning.

There was a large number of candidates, and the examination will extend over three days. The following members of the board were present: Dr. Raleigh Martin, of Lynchburg, president: Dr. Benjamin Harrison, of Richmond, secretary: Dr. Herbert M. Nash, of Norfolk; Dr. Thomas Martin, of Henry: Dr. Chandra of Charlottesville; Dr. Douglass, cellor, of Charlottesville; Dr. Douglass of Danville; Dr. Patterson, of Staunton Dr. E. T. Brady, of Chatham Hill; Dr. A. S. Priddy, of Keysville; Dr. Slaughter, of the Theological Seminary, at Alexandria, and Dr. Budd, of Petersburg.

Death of Mrs. Lewis. Mrs. Katy A. Lewis, wife of Magistrate James T. Lewis, of Henrico, died last night at her home, corner of Cary and Carter streets. She leaves a husband and seven children to mourn their loss.

FOR THE RECEPTION

Ladies of the Memorial Society Perfect Arrangements for the Entertainment.

Soon to Be Issued-Preparations for Entertaining the Thousands of Veterans.

already been published in the Dispatch. Mrs. Davis and Miss Winnie have been sent to Miss Mildred Lee, Mrs. Jackson Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, Mrs. W. H. F. Lee Mrs. Fitz Lee, and Mrs. Haves, Mrs. Hayes has written that she will be here accompanied by her son, Jefferson Hayes Davis, he having adopted his grandfather's

In about a week or ten days the ladler will have out a beautiful souvenir book, which is really the most handsome thing in paper and printers' link that has ever been issued in this city. The binding, en-graved work, and illustrations make it a work of art, and it will not be considered costly at $1, the price which the ladies costy at 3. the price which the label will charge for copies, when the public has seen just what it is Mrs. A. W. Garber edited and partly illustrated the book, and it is largely to her efforts that the success of the little publication will

The book contains the opening address The book contains the opening address and prayers that were delivered on February 22d, h greeting to the veterans, and the record of each State; pictures of the interior of the house, and relies. The drawings were all made by Miss Logan's class free of charge. The frontispiece is especially beautiful, being the figure of a woman resting the staff of a furled Contained by the staff of the first colories beautiful. federate banner, and was designed by

Mrs. W. E. Cutshaw reported from the ommittee in charge of the improvement f the grounds that after all the neces-ary work had been done to beautify the

A committee was appointed to prepare for the memorial services to Jefferson Davis, to be held in St. Paul's church on the Sunday before the reunion. The preacher who will conduct the services has not yet been selected.

During the reunion the Confederate Museum will be thrown open to the public free of charge. A't first it was thought best to admit free only those who were

EXPECTS TO FEED THOUSANDS. Captain D. A. Brown, Jr., chairman of the Committee on Quarters, expects to feed between 3,000 and 4,000 veterans during the reunion. He has a big job on his hands, but every one agrees with General Peyton Wise that no one could have been selected who would have ful-filled the duties better than the genial Captain Brown.

Old Pump-Hense Vesterday.

The annual celebration of the Otey Battery was held at the Old pump-house yesterday, and a royal good time was lead to the self-battery was held at the Old pump-house yesterday, and a royal good time was lead to the self-battery which the members of veteran organizations are going to feed themselves. There is one from North Carolina that will go into camp at the Exposition-Grounds Hood's Texas Brigade will occupy Old-Market Hall, and the Washington Veterans will be quartered on Broad street near the old City Hall. We are going to great all of our visitors just as i and-somely as possible, and I believe that camps in Virginia outside of Richmond will aid as far as possible for Virginia's reputation is at stake."

THE CAMPS ARE COMING. county, with fifty men, and the Sons of Veterans; Magruder-Ewell Camp, of Wil-liamsburg, Va., with forty men, and the Sons of Veterans; H. A. Carrington Camp, No. 34, of Smithville, Va., with seventy-five men, and Magruder Camp No. 35, of Newport News, with forty Camp Pridemore, of Jonesville, Va. applied for a charter, C. T. Duncan is commander of the new camp, which excts to bring about twenty members to

The Sons of Veterans have decided to postpone the reception to Miss Winnie Davis until July 2d, instead of the 1st. This was done on account of a conflicting entertainment on the evening of the 1st of July. The affair will be a brilliant one, and Mrs. N. V. Randolph and the Richmond Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy are assisting the Sons in their arrangements.

Adjutant-General J. C. Birdsong, of Junius Daniel Camp, of Raleigh, N. C. has written Captain Ellett that that or-ganization will be in Richmond on the ganization will be in Richmond on the occasion of the reunion, sixty strong, and that they will bring two historic battle-flags with them, of which he writes as follows: "We will have two historic flags in line-viz., the flag that was used in the fight at Bethel, in which fight the gallant Henry Lawson Wyatt (the first soldier who was killed in line of battle) gave up his life for southern independence. The other flag is the one borne by Mr. Henry M. Corvan, of this city, at the interment of President Davis, and was the last flag that covered his casket."

FRANK JAMES IS EXPECTED.

FRANK JAMES IS EXPECTED. The famous Frank James, of the "James boys," will be in Richmond on the occasion of the reusion. The former noted outlaw, who is a brother of the late Jesse James, was during the war a member of Quantrell's Guerillas. After war, he, with the other James boys, formed a gang of desperadoes, whose deeds made them famous the country Frank James has now reformed however, and is a useful and peaceful citizen.

Colonel Harry Hodges, of Norfolk, commander of the Fourth Virginia Regiment, was in the city yesterday, making arrangements for quartering his command here during the retinion. The regiment will arrive on the 30th of June and remain until the 2d of July. Their head-guestres will probably be established at and will assist in the exercises incident to the corner-stone laying. Colonel Withers has held every office within the gift of the Masons in the United States.

Miss Lottie H. Capers, sponsor for South Carolina, will be the guest of Major James H. Capers.

Miss Raney, sponsor for Florida, is a great niece of L. C. Q. Lamar. Her father, who will accompany her, is exjudge of the Supreme Court.

The vice-regents of the Museum will entertain the regents from the various States during the reunion.

ter up, and it was then decided to run the race over, with respect to the time-prize, but vigorous protests on the part of the riders caused this plan to be "nipped in the bud." Now about six riders claim the trophy, and Dr. Steel has the task of deciding to whom it shall go. He stated yesterday that he had not received the "apers, and hence could "make no statement.

RESPECT TO JUDGE MARSHALL. Resolutions Adopted at a General

Meeting of the Richmond Bar.

A general meeting of the Richmond Bar was held yesterday afternoon in the room of the City Bar Association to take suita ble action with reference to the death of Judge Hunter H. Marshall, Judge B. R. Wellford, Jr., presided, and Mr. Robert V. Marye was made secretary. Judge Wellferd, in explaining the object of the meeting, paid a high tribute to the sterling qualities of the deceased. On motion, the Chair appointed as a committee to prepare suitable resolutions the following gentlemen: Hon. W. W. Henry, Judge W. W. Crump, Mr. James Pleasants, Mr. Rosewell Page, Major Charles S. Striefelber, and S. Striefelb Stringfellow, and Captain John

After retiring, the committee, through After retiring the committee, through its chairman, Mr. Henry, reported a paper, in which a high tribute is paid Judge Marshall, and deep sorrow is expressed at his death. The paper calls attention to the fact that a few months ago the Richmond Bar was called to lament the death of one of its most distinguished younger members, and was now called to do henor to the memory of one who had reased by a half dozen. now called to do henor to the memory of one who had passed, by a half dozen years, the age allotted to men by the Psalmist, and had with great distinction enjoyed the honors, as he had borne the labors of his profession.

The paper, in eulogistic style, reviews the life of Judge Marshall, whose career is declared to have been one of the most brilliant which has fallen to the lot of brilliant which has fallen to the lot of any Virginian. "Within a very few year after obtaining his license," the commiafter obtaining his license," the committies say, "he was recognized as one of the leaders of a bar which has had few equals in the history of our State, a bar which was adorned by Judge Wood Bouldin, of Charlotte; Hon. Richard Logan of Halifax; Charles L. Moshy, of Lynchburg; Colonel John T. Thornton, of Prince Edward; Hon. Willis P. Bocock, of Buckingham, and Judge Frank D. Irving, of Cumberland." After further reviewing Judge Mar-

After further reviewing Judge Marshall's life, the committee continue:

'It is sufficient to say, that both as a practitioner and as a judge, Hunter Holmes Marshall showed himself possessed of the qualities of a great lawyer. But not alone as a lawyer will be be remembered. His love of the best literature and his extensive reading made him much more than a mere lawyer. He was highly cultured by his familiarity with the choice writings of ancient and modern times, and he was especially fond of the Latin authors, to whom he had modern times, and he was especially for of the Latin authors, to whom he ha-been introduced as a school-boy. His at tainments as a student of law and litera-ture were made most attractive by: yein of rare humor, which made him: delightful companion and a brilliant con-versationalist. He had a warm heart which never falled to draw around him ivated intellect, made him a universa

In presenting the resolutions, Mr. Henry a beautiful address, every word made a beautiful address, every word of which rung with the genuineness of feel-which rung with the genulneness of feeling.

After eloquent remarks by Mr. Legh R. Page, Major Robert Stiles, Mr. Jackson Guy, Mr. James Pleasants, and Mr. E. C. Massie, the resolutions were adopted, and the Chair, on motion, appointed the following gentlemen to present them to the several courts: Colonel W. W. Henry, to Court of Appeals of Virginia; Major C. S. Stringfellow, to United States Circuit Court; Hon. B. H. Munford, to the United States District Court; Mr. C. V. Meredith, to Circuit Court of Richmond; Hon. H. R. Pollard, to Chancery Court of Richmond; Mr. Legh R. Page, to Hustings Court of Richmond; Mr. Legh R. Page, to Hustings Court of Richmond; Mr. Legh R. Page, to Hustings Court of Richmond; Mr. Legh R. Page, to Hustings Court of Richmond; Mr. Legh R. Page, to Hustings Court of Richmond; Mr. A. W. Patterson, to Circuit Court of Henrico, and Mr. James L. Brown, to United States Circuit Court for West Virginia.

ANOTHER FRENCHMAN WANTED. This One Is an Artist, and Victimized L. J. Boujassen.

A special received by the Dispatch last night from Ashland, says:

rollian Randet, a suppo artist, has been at the hotel here for two He had with him a fine horse and buggy, which he used in travelling about the country, soliciting orders for pictures and frames. This morning he borrowed 24 from R. S. Mills, manager of the hotel, leaving the horse and luggy as security, and telling Mr. Mills he was short that amount to complete an order from a Norfolk patron.

"He told Mr. Mills he would go to Richmond, where he could make $100 by the transaction, and would return by the evetransaction, and would repay the amount. He falled to return, and by the noon train a warrant, sworn out by L. J. Boujassen, of Richmond, was received here, charging Bandet with observed the control of the control of the control of the presence. No taining money under false pretsness. No-thing further has been heard of the artist. He is described as weighing 130 rounds; He is described as weighing 190 journes; has blue eyes, blonde hair, and moustache: long nose, and thin face, and speaks English indistinctly."

At the police station last night nothing was known of this case, but it is presumed that the warrant was issued from

The Democratic Caucus To-Night.

The Democratic Caucus To-Night.

The caucus of the Democratic members of the City Council, to be held to-night, promises to be most interesting, exciting, and lengthy. It is thought that the body will be in session nearly all night. There are several important contests, the principal being for the position of Superintendent of the City Almshouse, Collector of Delinquent Taxes, and Sergeant-at-Arms of the Council. One gentleman, who is a candidate for the position of Collector of Delinquent Taxes, whose name has not been mentioned in the newspapers in this capacity, is Mr. W. Fletcher Richardson, while Mr. James N. King, a candidate for the office of Harbor Master, has been unintentionally omitted heretofore.

Quite a little crowd gathered at Seventh Quite a little crowd gathered at Sevenia and Broad streets yesterday morning as a result of a bicycle accident. Mr. Louis B. Spence was riding down Broad street, and at the corner of Seventh a gentleman, who had been wheeling abreast of him, turned suddenly to go down the latter thoroughfare, trying to pass in front of Mr. Spence. In consequence the two Spence. In consequence the two els collided with great force, throwing Mr. Spence on the ground, bruising him severely and badly damaging his wheel The other rider escaped scratchless.

Meeting of Union Carpenters.

An open meeting was held last night at Ellett's Hall, under the auspices of the Carpenters' Union. Addresses were made by Messrs. Belsen, Chappell, Wood Culloch, Wills, Doherty, and oursiderable enthusiasm was manif by those present, and it is predicted that much benefit will accrue to the carpen-ters' organization as the result of the Flower Mission.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will pay their annual visit to the almshouse and city jall Saturday evening at 4 o'clock. Contributions of flowers are solicited. They can be left at the State Superintendent's, Mrs. Russell's, No. 620 north Ninth street.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Mr. Thomas Adkins and Miss Adele Tyler Married at St. Paul's.

CHURCH CROWDED WITH FRIENDS

A Beautiful Ceremony-Many Society People Present-Reception After the Ceremony-Several Other Marriages in Richmond Yesterday.

Old St. Paul's church was the scene of a brilliant wedding last evening, when Miss Adele Tyler, the accomplished and beautiful daughter of Mr. James E. Tyler, was made the bride of Mr. Thomas Adkins. The church, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, was filled with friends of the young couple, when promptly at 9 o'clock the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march announced that the bridal party had arrived. The bridesmaids, Misses Nancy Dodd. of Philadelphia; Grace Inslee of New York, Isabel Ferris, of Jersey City Heights, and Lina Mayo, Maud McKenney, Mabel Todd, Lyle Tyler, and Lou Adkins, all gowned in white mull, over pink taffeta, and carrying bouquets of American Beauties, made their advent through the chancel, and marched up the centre alsie, forming an either side of the They then returned to the chancel in reverse order, alternating in couples with hers, Messra, James A. Mon-The ushers, Messix, James A. aton-cure, Wyndham Bolling, William Gray, and Claude Patrick, followed in pairs, and were in turn followed by two little flower girls, Misses Mattle Bowie and Mary Montlan, who were dressed in green, and carried bouquets of pinks.

ill was a flowing tulic veil. She bouquet of lilies of the valley.

At the chancel the bridesmaids formed At the chancel the bridesmalds formed on either side, and the groomsmen took positions back of them, the little flower-girls standing on either side of the entrance. The groom entered from the door in rear of the chancel, with his brother and best man, Mr. W. P. Adking, and received his bride from her falls. The beautiful and impressive Episcopal ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Hartley Carmichael, after which the bridal party left the church by the main aisle, Mr. and Mrs. Adkins preceding the bridesmalds and groomsmen, in couples, RECEPTION AT HOME.

The guests all repaired to the residence f the bride's parents, No. 507 west Frank, in street, after the ceremony, where a ecception was tendered the bridal party The happy couple left on the 3 o'clock train for an extended tour of the North. Mr. Adkins is a successful merchandise broker, and if most popular young man. His bride is a charming young lady, and has a host of friends, both in this city and claewhere. OTHER WEDDINGS YESTERDAY.

The groom, a popular young man, is in the service of the Richmond Rallway when Miss Hattle Mason became the bride of Mr. P. P. Ryan. The ceremony was performed by Father Ahern, and was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas where a host of friends extend their best wis The popularity of the couple was attested

MARRIED IN THE MORNING. At St. Mary's German Catholic church yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock Miss Maggie Hulcher was made the bride o Mr. August Vonderiehr, Rev. Father Wil-lebald Baumgartner being the celebrant, assisted by Father John, who served as descen, and Father Andrew as sub-deacor A large company of friends and rela-tives of the contracting parties witnessed the marriage. The ushers in attendance were Messrs. Frank Hulcher (best man). John Gregory, William Sorg, John Lynch, William Schutte, and Joseph Herbert. Miss Kate Schepers was the maid or, and Professor Charles F. Mutter pre-sided at the organ, playing the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the brida ortege entered the church. by the newly-wedded pair took the

DROWNED WHILE IN BATHING. Charles Hammond Goes Beyond His Depth and Loses His Life.

Charles Wesley Hammond, the 12-year drowned about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon while bathing with some of his companions in the river at the foot of Twenty-eighth street.

The lad could not swim, and, going out beyond his depth, was soon overcome beyond his depth, was soon overcome, his companions being two young to render any assistance. The boy had completed an examination that morning at Springfield School, and, instead of returning home, he chose, thought-lessly, one of the most dangerous holes in the river to go in bathing with his friends. They had been in about 15 interests when the screening of the drown. minutes when the screams of the drown-ing boy were heard. No man was near enough at the time to render any as-sistance, and the boy soon sank.

an inquest unnecessary, and turned the body over to the mother for burial. The funeral will take place at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon from Union-Station Methodist Episcopal church, and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Vanderslice.

The mother of the unfortunate lad is a widow, and resides on Venable street

OLD CONFEDERATES ORGANIZE. Veteran Association of the South Formed Last Night.

street, and proceeded to business by the election of the following officers: Commander, T. B. Waring, of Company F. Third Virginia Cavairy, with rank of colonel; Second Commander, S. Brock West, Company E, Fifth Regiment, North charge the concert will be used this afternoon.

Left to the Referee.

The question of deciding the time-prize offered in the ten-mile handicap bicy-lerace, given last Saturday under the auspices of the Owl Club, has been left to Dr. Frank Steel, who was referee on that occasion. The judges gave the mat-

Highest of all in Leavening Power .- Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Sal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

ciation will march in the parade with unielation will march in the parade with uniform and equipments, just such as they wore during the war. Colonel Waring also wishes to give a sham "battle of Gettysburg" at the Exposition-Grounds on July 4th, and will endeavor to get Colonel H. C. Jones to consent to command the First Virginia Regiment as "Yankees" instead of southerners just for this once, while Mr. William L. Royall will be asked to lead the "rebels" in the great fight. The association also hopes to secure the co-operation of the How-president of the Richmond District. The churches represented were Proad-Street Trinity, Union-Station, St. James, of this city; Central, Fifth-Street, and West-End, of Manchester; Willis and Fairmont, of Henrico; Zion and Providence, of York county, and Bellamy, of Gloucester. The address of welcome was made by Mr. C. W. Hunter, of the Broad-Street society, and was responded to by Miss Mary Nelson, of Willis church. church.

Collins, a returned missionary from China, gave an interesting talk of the work in that field, and Rev. Messara eedles, of Fairmont, and Beauchamp, f St. James, made brief addresses, Is. Charles H. Hasker, who is also istrict secretary, gave a freiew of the year's work, which was very grati-There was another interesting session last night, when Dr. Starr preached special sermon before the society.

Recommendations to the Cancus.

There was a final meeting last night of the Cancil's special committee on readjustine. of selaries and positions in Committee-Room No. II, of the City Hall. Chairman Noble presided, and there wers present a majority of the members. The first matter taken up was the question of consolidating the offices of the President of the Board of Health and that of Physican to the City Almshayes. After a consider the City Almshayes. of the Board of Health and that of Physician to the City Almshause. After a considerable amount of discussion had been indulged in the body agreed to recommend to the Democratic caucus of the Council, to be held to-night, that it was now inexpedient to make such a consolidation.

The committee then agreed to send to the Democratic caucus of the Council its action approving the consolidation of the positions of Sergeant-at-Arms of the Council and of Clerk to Council Committees, and those of clerks and weighmasters of the First and Second markets.

The Committee on Ordinances failed to get a quorum last night.

Died in His Sixtleth Year.

Mr. W. H. Harley, an aged and highly-respected citizen, died last evening at 8:15 o'clock, at the residence of his son, Mr. C. A. Harley, No. 2916 east Broad street. He was in the 66th year of his age. The funeral will take place in

Personals and Briefs. Dr. Henry M. Patterson, of Staunton,

Mrs. P. Frank Woodruff, of Home Place, has returned from Baltimore.

Mrs. Ellen Meade Clark, of Atianta, Ga., is in the city, to attend the reunion

Senator William M. Flanagan, of Powhatan county, was in the city yesterday. Mrs. F. T. Grymes and daughter, Mary Page, will leave for Virginia Beach on

Mr. Langstaff Johnston, engineer of the Traction Company, has returned from a western business-trip.

Large crowds are hearing Rev. Harrison preach at Fulton E church every night this week.

Mr. E. M. Eispeld, of Burlington, Ia., the father of Mesdames L. L. and I. I. Strause, who was reported to be gerously ill, is somewhat better, Mesi. Strause are now on their way to Burlington.

La., on Wednesday evening, June 24th, at 7 o'clock. After their wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Hofhelmer will make Rich-mond their home. The moonlight excursion to be given o lent music. A pretty marriage took place at Union Station parsonage on Monday night, June 8th, when Mr. John P. Tyler led Miss Susie M. Robinson to the hymeneal altar. Dr. Vanderslice, using the beauti-ful ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church, united them in the holy bonds, Richmonders in New York.

NEW YORK, June 19.—(Special.)—T. G. Leath and C. E. Strause, Mariborough; N. W. Bowe, Astor.

PETERSBURG AND VICINITY.

Proposed 'Cycle Race-Will Resun Operations-Death. PETERSBURG, VA., June 10 .- (Special.)

Club held last night, a movement was inaugurated for a road-race to be held or the New Market track, in Prince George county, in July. The proper committees were appointed to make all necessary arrangements. It is understood that the races will be—First, a five-mile handicap, open to the bicyclists of the State; a onemile race, open to all local 'cyclists; a novice race, open only to beginners, and probably others, yet to be decided upon. The New Market course offers a beautiful road for a meet of this character. PERSONAL AND GENERAL

Mesers. Nobler & Gill, whose saw-mil at Swift Creek, in Chesterfield county, was destroyed several days ago by the explication of the boiler, have purchased a new engine, and will resume operations ext week. Both of these gentle injured by the explosion, but both work. The present rate of taxation is

HUNDREDS have bought, handreds will buy $2.48 those MER'S ALL-WOOL

$1.60, which would give about $14,000 surplus over estimated expenditures. At $1.50, it is estimated that the surplus would be about $0.000, unless there should be some unexpected demands for money.

DEATH OF MRS. BURROW. DEATH OF MRS. BURROW.

Intelligence was received here to-day of the death at her home, in Prince George, of Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of Mr. N. H. Burrow, one of the most prominent citizens of the county. Deceased was a lady of rare loveliness of character, and was widely beloved and respected. Her remains will be interred in Blandford Ceme-tery to-morrow.

DEATHS.

CHAMBERLAYNE .- Died, at her restdence, No. 1993 west Clay street, at 6:45 P. M., June 19th, Mrs. F. VIRGINIA CHAMBERLAYNE, widow of Spotswood D. Chamberlayne, in the 49th year of her church, corner Adams and Clay streets, at 5 P. M., TO-DAY, the lith. Friends and acquaintances of the family respect-tuily invited to attend. Kittanning (Pa.) papers please copy.

Funeral from the Clay-Street Methodist

HARLEY.—Died, June 10th, at 8:15 P.
M. at the residence of his son, C. A.
Harley, 2916 east Broad street, W. H.
HARLEY, in the 60th year of his age.
His remains will be taken to Waynesbore, Ga. for interment. boro', Ga., for interment, KROUSE .- Died, June 10th, at 3 P. M., LELIA JOSEPHINE, only daughter of James C. and Josle Gasser Krouse; aged 2 years and 1 month. Funeral from the house, 894 north Fifth street, THURSDAY, at 6 P. M. Friends and acquaintances invited to attend.

LEWIS.-Died, Wednesday, June 1896, at 19:35 o'clock P. M., at the residence of her hisband. J. T. Lewis, corner Cary and Carter streets, Mrs. KATY A. LEWIS, in her 25th year. Funeral notice hereafter.

WYATT.—Died, Tuesday, June 9, 1896, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Vass, 418 south Pine street, Mrs. ELIZABETH WYATT, relict of Alexan-

ELIZABETH WYATT, relict of Alexander Wyatt.

Her funeral will take place from the above residence THURSDAY, June 11th, at 8:39 A. M. Friends of the family are invited to attend. Her remains will be taken to Hanover county, Va., for interment, by the Cherapeake and Ohlo rallway 19:29 A. M. train. Five children survive her.

Resolved. That humbly bowing to the wistom and power of our Heavenly.
Father, we will strive to emulate the virtues of our late friend and companion.
Resolved, We extend to the family our deep sympathy, and commend them to God, an ever-present help in time of need. Who watches with tonder care near the Who watches with tender care over the widow and fatheriess.

Resolved. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our council, published in the Richmond Dispatch, and copy be sent to the family of the de-eased. C. L. WEISIGER,

V H. Wyatt Secretary. OF THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF

Death of Mrs. Frances Chamberlayne Mrs. Chamberlayne was the wife of Mr. Spotswood D. Chamberlayne, a well-known citizen, who died about five years ago. Up to this time Mrs. Chamberlayne was a beautiful woman, in fine health, but in a year after consumption made its appearance, and ended her life last evening at 7 o'clock. About eighteen months ugo a young married daughter died with Messrs, Sam, and Ike Cohen, of the the same disease. Afflictions softened Cohen Company, are in the North on and purified her spirit, and after two There will be no lecture at Dr. Hoge's schurch on Wednesday night until furne anxious doubt in her heart. Two young daughters will enshrine her memory in their deepest affections. Notice of her funeral will appear in to-morr

MEETINGS. ALL MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF THE VIRGINIA BIBLE SOCIETY ARE requested to meet THIS MORNING at 1 o'clock sharp in the study of the Prespective of the Cambridge of the Prespective of the CAMPIELL, late secretary of the society. Seats will be reserved to the board.

J. HALLA President.

A STATED COMMUNICATION A STATED COMMUNICATION OF METROPOLITAN LODGE, NO.
11.A. F. and A. Massons, will be held at the Masonic Temple, Broad and Adama streets, THIS (Thursday) EVENING, June 11th, at 7:20 o'clock, Election, of officers, Master Massons in good standing are invited to attend.
By order of the Worshipful Master,
5-11-11* S. H. JACOBS, Secretary.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE THE ANUGAL MELTING COMPANY
STOCKHOLDERS OF THE RIGHMOND PAPER MANUFACTURING COMPANY will 66 held at the office of the company, 125 Main street, on SATURDAY, June 20th, at 12 o'clock M.
H. CHRISTIAN, JR.,
- je 6-td Secretary and Manager.

AMUSEMENTS. BASE-BALL. RICHMOND

ROANOKE. THURSDAY, FRIDAY, AND SATURDAY.

Games called at 4:6 P. M. je il-3t

THE JEFFERSON

OPEN EVERY NIGHT EXCEPT SUNDAY. (Weather permitting.)

CONFEDERATE MUSEUM, in the livis Mansion, corner Twelfth and Clay streets, open to visiters daily from 10 J., M. to 5 P. M. Aumission, 25 cents, except Saturdays, when admission is free to the public. Annual membership ticket, ii. which admits holder at all times.

Life membership, $10. ap 16-3m

EXCURSIONS, PICNICS, &c.

THE PRESBYTERIANS of Richmond and Manchester will have an outing at Old Point and Ruckroe Beach on TUESDAY, June 234, given by the Ladles Aid Society of Manchester church. Trains from Chesapeake and Ohlo depot, Seventeenth and Broad streets, Richmond, at 8 o'clock A. M., and Southern depot, foot of Perry street, Manchester, at 8 o'clock A. M. je 11-Th&Sat

THE ROSEMARY PUBLIC LIBRARY EXCURSION TO OLD POINT

SATURDAY, JUNE 13th.
Train will leave Broad-street depot.
Chesapsake and Ohio railroad, at 252 P.
M. returning that night. Round-trip tickets, good to remain over, 31. Dancing.
Electric-cars meet train. je 11-3t

Cards, bill-Heads, Statements, letter-Heads, Note-Heads, Circulars, Handbills, Dodgers, etc., printed by the Dispatch Company at low prices. Will give you good work at same prices you pay for infector work. Send us your otders and we will guarantee satisfaction in every particular.

(E

HE SECOND WITNESS.

Oscar refused, and Robinson Lend Willie the money, and I'll or it." Oscar again refused, but greed to make the loan 10 a dropped the coin into Magrevolver and fired at the girl

ald that Meadors appear

W. L. Thomas, of the First estified that he went to the

EVIDENCE OF ELLIS.

Mrs. Mendors, mother of the accused,

A SOUVENIR OF THE MUSEUM

A Handsomely Illustrated Booklet

The Confederate Memorial Literary Society met at the Museum yesterday afternoon and had their photographs taken in a group, after which a business session of the body was held and arrangements were completed for the reception to be held on the evening of June 30th. The affair is to take place at the Museum, and will be conducted similar to those at the White House in Washington. The details have Invitations to assist at the reception of place $5.35 had been left. Much of the work was done free of cost to the ladies.

TO ISSUE A SOUVENIR.

badges, but, for fear some veteran might be neglected, they have decided to allow everybody to see the relics without an entrance fee. The ladies are kept very busy receiving relics and placing them in the different rooms.

The latter, speaking yesterday of his Captain Ellett yesterday received in-formation that the following additional camps would attend the reunion: Col-lins-Garnett Camp, of King George the reunion.

The Sons of Veterans have decided to

NORTH CAROLINA VETERANS.

uarters will probably be established at the Exchange Hotel.
Colonel R. E. Withers, of Wytheville, will be in Richmond during the reunion, and will assist in the exercises incident intentionally omitted heretofore, Bievelo Accident.

the groomsmen, Messrs, Will. Moseley, Jack Miller, Jack Palmer, S. S. P. Patte-son, Linwood Antrim, Charles Crenshaw, Turner Arrington, and Charles Bobmer, of Lynchburg, who had formed in pairs

THE BRIDE ENTERS. THE BRIDE ENTERS.

Miss Florence Clark, of Scottsville, the mail of honor, in pink taffela, and carrying a bouquet of American Leauties, next entered alone, and immediately behind her came the bride, escoried by her father. She was exquisitely gowned in a white satin skirt, en traine; talle waist, trimmed with orange-blossoms, and ever

Mr. H. C. Baker and Miss Lillie Brauer were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. Dr. George Cooper, of the First Baptist church. The ceremony was only attended by a few intimate friends, and the couple left on the 7 o'cock train for Washington and other northern points.

and Electric Company, and is a brother of Mr. H. T. Baker, who travels for M. Milhiser & Co. His bride is quite an at-tractive and popular young lady. There was a pretty marriage at St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday afternoon.

train for a northern tour

The body was found by Joe Edwards only a few minutes later, and Coroner Taylor viewed the remains. He decided

The "Ex-Confederate Veteran Associa tion of the South" held its first regular meeting last night at 1508 east Main to secure the co-operation of the How-lizers as well as Pickett Camp.

The association will meet to-night at 8
P. M. at 1508 east Main street, and Saturday evening at the same time and place Woman's Missionary Society. The second annual meeting of the man's Missionary Society, which was held at Broad-Street Methodist church yesterday, proved a success, and was pre-sided over by Mrs. Charles H. Hasker, president of the Richmond District. The represented were Broad-

Recommendations to the Cancus.

Waynesboro', Ga., where the interment will take place to-morrow.

Hon. William Lovenstein is very ill at his residence, on east Clay street.

Mr. S. M. Boiling, ex-member of the House of Delegates, from Bedford county, was in the city yesterday.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Moses L. Hofhelmer, of this city, and Miss Nettle M. Herold, of Shreveport, the Pocahontas to-night under the auspices of the Baptist Young People's Union, and for the benefit of their hospital fund, promises to be one of the most attractive of the summer. There will be some excel-

At a meeting of the Cockade City 'Cycle rapidly recovering.

The special committee of the Common Council, appointed to consider the question of the necessity of an increase in the rate of taxation or greater economy in the conduct of our municipal government, met last right, organized, and began their

THE BOSTON, 1009 East Main Street.